The official start to the Festive Season always begins with the Annual Christmas Tree for the Kids, which was held last Sunday - 5th December 2010. Almost 50 youngsters witnessed Father Christmas arriving on a camel, which raised a few questions about Santa coming from the North Pole !!!

To see the joy and innocence of children at a time like this is such a privilege, and being able to stand in for Father Christmas gives me a great deal of pleasure. I had to explain to my grand-daughters that the real Father Christmas was so busy that he had asked me to stand in for him, but I am not sure if they bought it. Anyway, their first ever "Camel Ride" soon took their minds off this small problem.

Many thanks to the Ladies of the Bowls Section for organizing the day, to Alison Dinning, for being the grown up fairy, and to Christina Jovaris for assisting as the young fairy, and of course, no Christmas Tree would ever be the same without the Clown Magician who always thrills with his tricks, the one and only Eddie Smyth. You all contributed to making the day a huge success.

Now back to the mundane. I must start with an apology, last week we published the names of all the Trophy Winners, throughout the year and unfortunately made one error. The Committee Cup was in fact won by Hennie Breed, Neil Edmunds, Neville Ingram and Dave Morris - sorry gents, a gremlin got into the system, but well done to you all. Also, I omitted to mention that the Winning 4 Ball on Capt vs Vice-Captain's Day was the stand-in Vice Captain himself, Kevin Gough together with his Team of Paulus Pienaar, Brian Wood and Gary Cobden. Congratulations Boys, well played.

I realize that this is very short notice, but have decided to have a Christmas Lunch at the Club on Sunday - 19th December 2010. Chris is preparing an excellent 3 Course Meal for the very reasonable price of R85.00 for Adults and R40.00 for children under 12 years of age.

Bookings are essential, so please call Chris 011 907-8906 Ext 106, to secure your table.

The Course has taken quite a beating with temperatures in the mid thirties, so spare a thought for Rob as he has his staff doing a rain dance every morning. Kevin Gough has been working closely with Rob and has submitted a short report on the difficulties being experienced at the moment, which I feel sure you will find most informative and interesting.

Wednesday was the Final Round of our Motor Dealer Challenge. With tyres smoking and engines screaming it was the well tuned Nissan that raced past the checkered flag to take 1st Place on the podium. Well done to Hannes and his Team. Second Place went to CMH Toyota-2 followed by CMH Toyota-1.

In the Individual Stableford Competition Aubrey 'KO' Voster and Hellmut 'Stiletto' Probst showed a clean pair of heels as they romped home with 47 points. Many lengths behind, in 2nd Place by way of count out, was Abe Mzizi and Cappie Cappelletto followed by Ron Williams and Willie Jacobs

Friday's Meat Compo was well attended and claiming 'Nyama King' of the day was Warren 'Beef' Radley on 23 points followed by Cappie 'Spare Ribs' Cappelletto on 20 points. Third place went to De Wet Castelyn on 19 points who beat Barry Bothma in a count out. Fifth and final placing went to Graham London on 18 points.

Saturday Morning was an Individual Medal and Thys 'Nut Cracker' le Roux set the pace by scoring a 67 nett to take 1st Place. Second place went to C Stols on 68 followed by Z de Beer on 70 nett who beat J Hay and G Ellwood in a count out.

In the afternoon it was Hugh 'Pops' Neeson who burnt up the course with a 64 nett to take top honours. Second place went to Lourens 'Midget' Gouws on 67 nett followed by Todd Young on 70 nett. Fourth place, on 70 nett, went by way of count out and Nick Toplis won this battle against Paul Mokoena

Sundays heat rubbed off on V Fallack as he raced to victory on 40 points, beating M Daya in a count out. Third place went to Brian 'Wingnut' Johnstone on 38 points followed by L Vallabh and G Field on 37 points.
